| 18 | as set forth herein, the attached exhibits, and the accompanying verification of Pamela Pressley. | | | | |
| 19 | PETITIONER | | | | |
| 20 | Petitioner, Consumer Watchdog. | , is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, nonpartisan, public interest | | | |
| 21 | corporation organized to represent the interests of taxpayers and consumers. Consumer Watchdog was | | | | |
| 22 | originally incorporated as The Network Project | in 1985, changed its name to The Foundation for | | | |
| 23 | Taxpayer and Consumer Rights in 1998, and ch | nanged its name to Consumer Watchdog in 2008. (See | | | |
| 24 | Articles of Incorporation and amendments, atta | ched hereto as Exhibit A.) One of Consumer | | | |
| 25 | Watchdog's chief missions is to represent the in | nterests of insurance policyholders, particularly as they | | | | relate to the implementation and enforcement of Proposition 103 in matters before the Legislature, the courts, and the CDI.

- 2. Consumer Watchdog's founder wrote Proposition 103 and led the successful campaign for its enactment by California voters in 1988. Consumer Watchdog's staff and consultants include some of the nation's foremost consumer advocates and experts on insurance ratemaking matters.
- 3. Consumer Watchdog is primarily funded by: 1) contributions from members of the public throughout California; 2) grants; 3) awards of attorneys' fees and expenses; and 4) intervenor funding. (See Exhibit E attached hereto for approximate percentages of Consumer Watchdog's overall budget.) Other than the interests of consumers, Consumer Watchdog represents no other interests.
- 4. Consumer Watchdog has served as a public watchdog with regard to insurance rates and insurer rollback liabilities under Proposition 103 by: monitoring rollback settlements and the status of the rollback regulations; reviewing and challenging rate filings made by insurers seeking excessive rate changes; participating in rulemaking and adjudicatory hearings before the CDI; bringing and joining civil lawsuits to ensure proper application of Proposition 103; bringing and joining actions to overturn legislative acts that do not further the purpose of Proposition 103; and educating the public concerning industry underwriting and rating practices and their rights under Proposition 103 and other provisions of state law.
- 5. Consumer Watchdog and its attorneys have participated in virtually every lawsuit concerning Proposition 103's constitutionality and scope to uphold its protections for consumer policyholders.²

THE FOUNDATION FOR TAXPAYER AND CONSUMER RIGHTS

A California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

ARTICLE I

NAME AND OFFICES

Section 1. Name. The name of this corporation is and shall be THE FOUNDATION FOR TAXPAYER AND CONSUMER RIGHTS (hereinafter, the "Corporation").

Section 2. Principal Office. The Corporation's principal office shall be fixed and located at such place as the Board of Directors (hereinafter, the "Board") shall determine. The Board is hereby granted full power and authority to change such principal office from one location to another.

Section 3. Other Offices. The Board may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices as deemed necessary for the transaction of the business of the Corporation.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. The Corporation shall have no members within the meaning of section 5056 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law. Any action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members shall require only approval of the Board. All rights which would otherwise vest in the members shall vest in the Directors.

Section 2. Honorary Members. Nothing in this Article II shall be construed as limiting the right of the Corporation's Board to elect honorary members of the Corporation, under such terms and conditions as the Board may see fit to provide, even though such a person shall not be deemed to be a "member" within the meaning of Section 5056 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and shall not have the rights of members set forth therein.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers. Subject to any limitations contained in the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the activities and affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may delegate the management of the activities of the Corporation to any person or persons, management company, or committee however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board.

Section 2 Number of Directors. The authorized number of Directors of the Corporation shall be not less than three (3) nor more than ten (10), with the exact number of authorized trustees to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Trustees.¹

Section 3. Election and Term of Office. All Directors shall be elected annually at the regular annual meeting of the Board, to hold office until expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

The term of office of each Director shall be three years.

Section 4. Resignation. Any Director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board, or to the Board, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected before such time to take office when the resignation becomes effective. No Director may resign where the Corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the Attorney General.

Section 5. Removal and Disqualification. (a) Any Director may be removed without cause, at any time, upon approval of a majority of the Directors then in office. Any Director may be removed for cause under the provisions of Section 5223 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

(b) The Board may declare vacant the office of any Director who fails to attend three regular meetings of the Board.

Section 6. Vacancies. (a) A vacancy in the Board shall be deemed to exist (i) upon the death, resignation or removal of any Director; or (ii) upon an increase in the authorized number of Directors; or (iii) upon the declaration by Board resolution of a vacancy in the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached any duty under Article 3 of Chapter 2 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of such Director's term of office.

(b) All vacancies shall be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors then in office, whether or not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Each Director so elected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the replaced Director and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

Section 7. Restriction on Interested Directors. Not more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the Board may be interested persons. For such purpose, interested person means either (1) any person currently being compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve months, whether as a full-or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director; or

- (2) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person. However, any violation of the provisions of this Section shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the Corporation.
- Section 8. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the Board shall be held without other notice than these Bylaws on the third Tuesday of April of each year, at the principal office of the Corporation, or at such other time and place as the Board may fix, for the purpose of electing Directors and officers and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the Board.
- Section 9. Other Regular Meetings. Other regular meetings of the Board may be held without call or notice on such dates and at such times and places as may be fixed from time to time by the Board.
- Section 10. Special Meetings. (a) Special meetings of the Board for any purpose or purposes may be called by or at the request of President, the Chairman of the Board, if any, or any two (2) Directors. Unless an alternate location is approved by the person(s) calling the special meeting, the place of said meeting shall be the principal office of the Corporation.
- (b) Special meetings of the Board shall be held upon four days' notice by first-class mail or forty-eight hours' notice given personally or by telephone, telegraph, telex, or similar means of communication. Such notice shall state the time and place of the meeting (unless the place of the meeting is the principal office of the Corporation) but need not specify the purpose.

Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each Director at such Director's address as shown upon the records of the Corporation by the President for purposes of notice or, if such address is not shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the Directors are regularly held.

Notice by mail shall be deemed to have been given at the time a written notice is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid. Any other written notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means, to the recipient. Oral notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the recipient.

Section 11. Quorum. One-fifth of the number of Directors authorized in the Articles or Bylaws, but in no event less than two (2), whichever is larger, shall constitute a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 14 of this Article III. Every act or decision made or done by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board, unless a greater number is required by law or by the Articles or these Bylaws. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting or such greater number as is required by law or by the Articles or these Bylaws.

Section 12. Participation in Meetings by Conference Telephone. Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section constitutes presence in person at such meeting.

Section 13. Waiver of Notice. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who signs a waiver of notice or a written consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such Director. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meetings.

Section 14. Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given unless the original meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four hours. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 15 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of such Directors.

Section 16 Compensation. Directors shall not receive compensation for their services as members of the Board, but shall be reimbursed for their just and reasonable expenses, as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board. Subject to the provisions of Section 7 of this Article III, a Director may serve the Corporation in any other capacity as an officer, agent, employee or otherwise, and receive compensation therefor and reimbursement for expenses, in such amounts as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board.

Section 17. Committees. (a) The Board may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of Directors then in office, provided consisting of two or more Directors and no persons who are not Directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Appointments to such committees shall be by a majority vote of the Directors then in office. The Board may appoint one or more Directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board or in these Bylaws, shall have all the authority of the Board, except that no committee may:

- (1) fill vacancies on the Board or on any committee which has the authority of the Board:
- (2) fix compensation of the Directors for serving on the Board or on any committee;
- (3) amend or repeal Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws;

- (4) amend or repeal any resolution of the Board which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;
- (5) create any committees of the Board or appoint the members thereof;
- (6) expend corporate funds to support a nominee for Director after there are more people nominated for Director than can be elected; or,
- (7) approve any self-dealing transaction, as such transactions are defined in section 5233 (a) of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, except as otherwise provided in section 5233(d)(3) thereof.

The Board shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which proceedings of any such committee shall be conducted. In the absence of any such prescription, such committee shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which its proceedings shall be conducted. Unless the Board of such committee shall otherwise provide, the regular and special meetings and other actions of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of this Article III appropriate to meeting and actions of the Board. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of each committee.

(b) The Board may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, create one or more advisory committees whose members may, but need not, be Directors of the Corporation, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Appointments to such committees shall by a majority vote of the Directors then in office. Such committees shall have such powers and functions as are delegated by the Board.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, Executive Director, and a Secretary/Treasurer. The Corporation may also have, at the discretion of the Board, a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, one or more Assistant Secretary/Treasurers, and such other officers as may be elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this Article IV. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, except that the Secretary/Treasurer may not serve concurrently as the President or Chairman of the Board.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the regular annual meeting of the Board and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment. If the election of any officer shall not be held at such meeting, such shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently possible. Each officer shall hold office until his or her resignation, removal, or other disqualification from service, or until his or her successor shall have been elected.

Section 3. Subordinate Officers. The President may appoint such other officers as the business of the Corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as are provided in these Bylaws or as the Board may from time to time determine.

Section 4. Removal. Any officer may be removed by the Board, with or without cause, at any time, whenever in the Board's judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby.

Section 5. Resignation. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Corporation, without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the Corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein and, unless otherwise specified in such notice, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these Bylaws for regular election to such office, provided that a vacancy shall be filled as it occurs and not on an annual basis.

Section 7. Duties of the President. Subject to such powers as may be given by the Board to the Chairman of the Board, if any, the President shall serve as the Corporation's president, general manager and chief executive officer and shall have, subject to control of the Board, general supervision, direction, and control of the business and officers of the Corporation. In the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if there be none, the President shall preside at all meetings of the Board and of the Corporation, and shall perform all duties of management usually vested in the office of president and general manager of a corporation and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board, the law or these Bylaws.

Section 8. Duties of the Executive Director. The Executive Director shall act as the chief administrative officer of the Corporation. The Executive Director shall report directly to the President of the Corporation. In the absence or in the event of the disability of the President, the Executive Director shall perform all the duties of the President and, when so acting, shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. The Executive Director shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board.

from time to time may be prescribed by the Board.

Section 9. (a) Duties of the Secretary/Treasurer. The Secretary/Treasurer shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place as the Board may order, the minutes of all meetings of the Board and its committees. The minutes shall include the time and place that the meeting was held, whether regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present, and the proceedings thereof. The Secretary/Treasurer shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal office of the Corporation in the State of California, the original or a copy of the Corporation's Articles and Bylaws, as amended to date. The Secretary/Treasurer shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Board and any committees thereof required by these Bylaws or by the law to be given, shall keep the seal of the Corporation in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board.

(b) The Secretary/Treasurer shall also be the chief financial officer of the Corporation and shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct books and records of account of the properties and business transactions of the Corporation. The Secretary/Treasurer shall send or cause to be given to the Directors such financial statements and reports as are required to be given by law, these Bylaws, or the Board. The Secretary/Treasurer shall deposit all monies and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the Corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the Board. The Secretary/Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board, shall render to the President and the Directors, whenever they request, an account of all transactions as Secretary/Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board, the law or these Bylaws. The Secretary/Treasurer shall annually cause the Corporation's books and accounts to be audited by an independent accountant selected by the Board and shall promptly present to the Board said accountant's report.

Section 10. Fees and Compensation. Officers may receive such compensation for their services and such reimbursement for expenses as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the President, except that the Board shall approve the compensation of those officers who also serve as members of the Board.

ARTICLE V

BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 1. Maintenance of Corporate Records. The Corporation shall keep: (1) adequate and correct books and records of account; and (2) minutes in written form of the proceedings of the Board and committees of the Board.

All such records shall be kept at the Corporation's principal office.

Section 2. Maintenance and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The Corporation shall keep at its principal office in California the original or a copy of its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws as amended to date.

Section 3. Inspection by Directors. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of the Corporation.

Section 4. Annual Report to Directors. The Board shall cause an annual report and a statement of transactions with interested persons and of indemnifications to be furnished annually to all Directors of the Corporation, containing the information required by Sections 6321 and 6322 of the California Nonprofit Corporation law.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

Section 1. (a) The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify its "agents", as defined in Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(b) The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any "agent" of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this Article; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not purchase or maintain such insurance to indemnify any agents of the Corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE VII

OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 1. Contracts. The Board may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, of the Corporation to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized by the Board, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts, or orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable to the Corporation, shall be signed or endorsed by such officer or officers, agent or agents, of the Corporation and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by resolution of the Board. In the absence of such determination by the Board, such instruments shall be signed or endorsed by the Secretary/Treasurer.

Section 3. Gifts. The Board may accept on behalf of the Corporation any contribution, gift, bequest or devise for the general purpose or for any special purpose of the Corporation.

Section 4. Parliamentary Authority. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Corporation in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, the Articles of the Incorporation or then existing law.

Section 5. Construction and Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions contained in the California Nonprofit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular includes the plural, the plural includes the singular, and the term "person" includes both a legal entity and a natural person.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENTS

New Bylaws may be adopted, or these Bylaws may be amended or repealed, by the Board, subject to the following limitations:

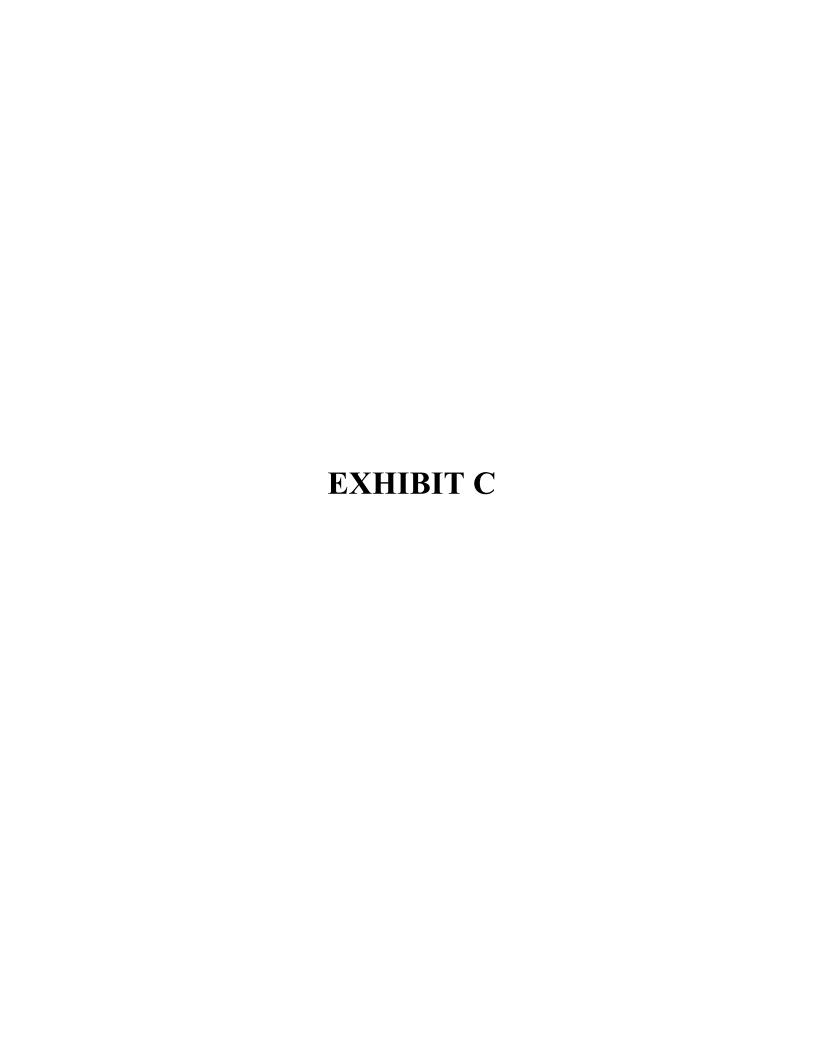

- (1) No amendment may extend the term of a Director beyond that for which such Director was elected.
- (2) Where any provision in these Bylaws requires the vote of a larger proportion of, or all of, the Directors, than is otherwise required by law, such provision may not be altered, amended or repealed except by such greater vote.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY/TREASURER

- I, the undersigned, do hereby certify:
- (1) That I am the duly elected and acting Secretary/Treasurer of THE FOUNDATION FOR TAXPAYER AND CONSUMER RIGHTS, a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation; and,
- (2) That the foregoing Bylaws constitute the Bylaws of said Corporation as duly adopted by action of the Board of Directors of said Corporation duly taken.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of said Corporation as of the grant day of December 2001

- Won Medical Board reform in legislation that will give patients a voice and new rights in the enforcement process when they file a complaint for harm at the hands of a doctor, and guided families seeking to file such complaints through the process.
- Drove the passage of historic legislation that will enable the state to impose a gasoline price gouging penalty on oil refiners, created expansive new transparency of refiners, and established a state watchdog bureau for market monitoring of the oil refining and retail industry.
- Won Medical Board reform in legislation that will give patients a voice and new rights in the enforcement process when they file a complaint for harm at the hands of a doctor.
- Backed newly-enacted regulations to protect privacy under California's strongest-in-thenation privacy law that prevent the tracking and selling of sensitive information and sparked a state investigation of how connected cars track us.
- Released two reports investigating best practices for consumer recycling in support of tough new regulations for the state's bottle deposit reform law to dramatically increase how many consumers are able to use the system to return their bottles and cans.

- Won three motions to dismiss brought by CVS in a long-running legal battle over civil rights violations relating to a CVS drug program that limits people living with HIV to obtaining their life-saving medications only by mail.
- Represented the public's interest in several ongoing Department of Insurance regulatory proceedings, submitting written and oral comments, and expert and legal analysis, regarding the proposed "Complete Property and Casualty Rate Applications" and "Catastrophe Modeling and Ratemaking" regulations.
- Sponsored pending legislation to protect the health of people living within 3200 feet of oil wells by fining any operator whose community wells only produce a marginal number of barrels of oil daily.
- Organized a statewide team of volunteer patient advocates whose testimony spurred the Medical Board of California to hold its first-ever hearing focused on maternal and infant mortality and first-ever meeting in Kern County.
- Brought a legal action with the Los Angeles Times that won disclosure of FBI warrants and related documents that detail the United States Attorney's Office's investigation into unethical and illegal activity at the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office and the Department of Water and Power ("DWP").
- Released three reports spotlighting the profiling flaws of algorithms, the dangers of automated decision-making and artificial intelligence, and advocated for strong consumer opt-out and disclosure rights in proposed automated decision-making privacy regulations.
- Settled a class action lawsuit on behalf of patients whose confidential medical information, including HIV status, was accessed and shared without their consent; impacted Californians received financial compensation and the right to have their data deleted.
- Won statewide and county declarations of Latina Maternal Health Month to raise awareness and education around the maternal mortality crisis, and sponsored the second and third annual Maternal Health Fair in Kern County.
- Maintained public pressure on the Newsom Administration to reduce oil and gas permitting in the state at the website www.newsomwellwatch.com, an interactive map tracking well permits granted by Newsom.
- Produced reports and testimony analyzing the big five oil refiners' profit reports and refining margins to show the need to speed implementation of a price-gouging penalty on unjustified price spikes.
- Launched a Consumer Alert video series to educate consumers on pressing current pocketbook and justice topics.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to the amendments to your organization's Articles of Incorporation filed with the state on January 18, 2008. We have updated our records to reflect the name change from THE FOUNDATION FOR TAXPAYER AND CONSUMER RIGHTS to CONSUMER WATCHDOG, as indicated above.

Our records indicate that a determination letter was issued in August 1988 that recognized you as exempt from Federal income tax. Our records further indicate that you are currently exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our records also indicate you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

Cindy Westcott
